

LIZ MELENDEZ

BIO

Considered by many to be one of the top lead guitarists in the country, her live performances demonstrate her versatility, often paying homage to her influences as a highlight to her own clearly defined lead guitar and vocal style.

Her guitar playing has been compared to everyone from Carlos Santana to Stevie Ray Vaughan and her voice has been compared to everyone from Bonnie Raitt to Janis Joplin.

Liz currently has 3 album releases to her credit showcasing her talents as a songwriter, arranger, and producer. Born and raised in the South Valley of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Liz currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia and tours the U.S. and the southeast regularly. >> MORE

MORE PHOTOS TOUR DATES

MUSIC

LIVE at Eddie's Attic

Sweet Southern Soul

Mercy

"She mops the floor with nearly every other Atlanta area blues rock act and makes no apologies."

— JEFF CLARK, STOMP & STAMMER MAGAZINE

More Info

lizmelendezmusic.com

QUICK VIEW HIGHLIGHTS

Has performed with Hubert Sumlin, Bob Margolin, Tinsley Ellis, Francine Reed, Chris Duarte, Albert Castiglia Headlined and performed at major festivals - Riverbend in Chattanooga, Jubilee CityFest in Montgomery, Cape Fear Blues Festival, and the Atlanta Dogwood Festival